1. The student committed an act enumerated in Education Code section 48900.

(cf. 5144 - Discipline)

2. The student has been habitually truant or irregular in attendance from instruction he/she is lawfully required to attend.

(cf. 5113 - Absences and Excuses)
(cf. 5113.1 - Chronic Absence and Truancy)

Involuntary transfer to a continuation school shall be made only when other means fail to bring about student improvement. However, a student may be involuntarily transferred the first time he/she commits an act enumerated in Education Code 48900 if the principal determines that the student's presence causes a danger to persons or property or threatens to disrupt the instructional process. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

Prior to an involuntary transfer, the student and parent/guardian shall be given written notice that they may request a meeting with the Superintendent or designee. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

(cf. 5145.6 - Parental Notifications)

At the meeting, the student or parent/guardian shall be informed of the specific facts and reasons for the proposed transfer. The student or parent/guardian shall have the opportunity to inspect all documents relied upon, question any evidence and witnesses presented, and present evidence on the student's behalf. The student may designate one or more representatives and witnesses to be present with him/her at the meeting. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

A written decision to transfer, stating the facts and reasons for the decision, shall be sent to the student and parent/guardian. It shall indicate whether the decision is subject to periodic review and the procedure for such review. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

The persons making the final decision for involuntary transfer shall not be members of the staff of the school in which the student is enrolled at the time. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

No involuntary transfer to a continuation school shall extend beyond the end of the semester following the semester when the acts leading to the involuntary transfer occurred. (Education Code § 48432.5.)

Voluntary Enrollment

As space permits, students who meet the eligibility criteria specified in Board policy may voluntarily enroll in a continuation school. A student may be considered for placement in the continuation school whenever his/her parent/guardian submits a written request to the Superintendent or designee or the student is referred by a counselor or school administrator. Approval of a student's voluntary transfer shall be based on a finding that the placement will promote the educational interests of the student. (Education Code § 48432.3.)

Voluntary enrollment shall be subject to the following conditions: (Education Code §§ 48432.3 and 48432.5.)

Final Reading: Board Policy and Administrative Regulation 6184, Continuing Education

- 1. A student's voluntary placement in continuation education shall not be used as an alternative to expulsion unless alternative means of correction have been attempted pursuant to Education Code section 48900.5.
- 2. The district shall strive to ensure that no specific group of students, including a group based on race, ethnicity, language status, or special needs, is disproportionately enrolled in continuation education within the district.

(cf. 0410 - Nondiscrimination in District Programs and Activities)

The Superintendent or designee shall annually review disaggregated student enrollment data and report such data to the Governing Board. If it is determined that one or more student groups are enrolled in continuation education at a significantly higher level than their proportional enrollment in the district, the Superintendent or designee shall conduct a review of enrollment criteria and procedures to determine the reason for the disproportionate enrollment.

- 3. A copy of this administrative regulation and accompanying Board policy shall be provided to a student whose voluntary transfer to a continuation school is under consideration and to his/her parent/guardian.
- 4. Before a student is transferred and upon request by his/her parent/guardian, the parent/guardian may meet with a counselor, principal, or administrator from both the school that the student is currently attending and the continuation school to determine if transferring is the best option for the student.
- 5. To the extent possible, voluntary transfer to a continuation school shall occur within the first four weeks of each semester.
- 6. A student who is voluntarily enrolled in continuation education may return to the regular high school at the beginning of the following school year, or at any other time with the consent of the Superintendent or designee.

Intake and Orientation

Upon voluntary or involuntary transfer to a continuation education program, an intake meeting shall be conducted with each student and his/her parent/guardian. At this meeting, the principal or counselor shall provide information about each course and number of credits that the student needs to complete in order to graduate and shall develop an individualized academic plan for the student. The student, and his/her parent/guardian as appropriate, shall sign a contract indicating their commitment to these objectives.

In addition, at the beginning of each school year, the district coordinator for continuation education, school counselor(s), or other designee(s) shall provide an orientation session for all incoming students and their parents/guardians in order to help them understand the credit recovery process and establish expectations for student conduct and participation. As appropriate, extended orientation sessions may be provided to assist students in developing academic, social, communication, anger management, or other skills necessary to success in school.

Minimum Attendance Requirement

In continuation high schools and classes, a day of attendance shall be at least 180 minutes. (Education Code § 46170.)

Each student shall attend classes for not less than 15 hours per week. However, if a student gives satisfactory proof of regular employment, he/she may attend classes for not less than four hours per week for the regular school term. These requirements may be met by any combination of attendance in a continuation education class and/or regional occupational center or program. (Education Code §§ 46170, 48402, and 48400.)

Leaves of Absence

A student enrolled in compulsory continuation education classes may take a leave of absence for up to two semesters for the purpose of supervised travel, study, training, or work in accordance with law, Board policy, and administrative regulation. (Education Code § 48416.)

(cf. 5112.3 - Student Leave of Absence)

Reenrollment

Any person age 16 or 17 years who terminated his/her enrollment in continuation school after obtaining a certificate of proficiency may reenroll in the District once without prejudice. If the student leaves a second time, the Superintendent or designee may deny reenrollment until the beginning of the next semester. (Education Code § 48414.)

The continuation education program shall be aligned with the goals identified in the district's local control and accountability plan, designed and implemented in collaboration with the other high school(s) within the district, and coordinated with other educational options available to district students.

(5 CCR §§ 011000 and 11003.) The continuation high school shall be conducted for not less than 175 days during a school year. The Board may maintain continuation classes during the district's regular school hours, during special school hours for these classes established by the Board, or during such hours and for such length of time during the day or evening that adult education classes are maintained. (Education Code § 48434; 5 CCR § 11004.)

(cf. 6111 - School Calendar)

Students eligible for continuation education classes shall be age 16 or 17 years at the time of their enrollment and shall not have graduated from high school. (Education Code §§ 48400 and 48413.) A student may be involuntarily transferred into a continuation education program in accordance with law and administrative regulation. (Education Code § 48432.5) With the consent of the Superintendent or designee, a student may voluntarily enroll in continuation classes in order to receive special attention such as individualized instruction. (Education Code §§ 48432.3, and 48432.5.)

Priority for voluntary enrollment in continuation classes shall be given to students who need credit recovery in order to graduate with their peers and to students who, due to employment, pregnancy, parenting responsibilities, or other circumstances, are unable to attend a

Enrollment criteria shall be applied consistently throughout the district. (Education Code § 48432.3.)

(cf. 0410 - Nondiscrimination in District Programs and Activities)

School #1	0123456	2016-17	4/17-4/18	Power Outage	No
School #1	0123456	2015-16	12/15- 12/6	Road Closures	Yes

SECTION C: MATERIAL DECREASE

This section is used to claim attendance for material decreases pursuant to EC Section 46392. If the request does not include any credits for a material decrease in attendance, select the "Not Applicable" box on the top right corner and proceed to Section D.

If the attendance of an LEA or a school is less than or equal to 90 percent of "normal" attendance for a reasonable time during or after an emergency event, the LEA may assume that a case exists for claiming emergency attendance credit for the "material decrease" of attendance. According to CCR, Title 5, Section 428, "normal" attendance is the average daily attendance (ADA) for the month of either October or May of the same school year. If the emergency occurred between July and September of the current year, the LEA must wait to submit the request until after October ADA of the current year can be calculated. The October or May ADA is used as a proxy for a normal day of attendance for the emergency day. However, if an emergency occurs in October or May, the LEA may request to use a different month as a proxy for a normal day of attendance for the emergency day.

Pursuant to EC Section 46392, the 90 percent threshold may be waived when the Governor has declared a "State of Emergency." A copy of the Governor's declaration should be included in the submittal. Any reduction of attendance in a necessary small school (NSS), even if less than 10 percent, may be considered material.

Attendance must be provided at the school site level. Approval of a districtwide material decrease is contingent upon the inclusion of all district sites. and a districtwide percentage of 90 percent or less on each emergency day. For non-districtwide emergencies, each school must meet the 90 percent threshold on each emergency day for approval of attendance credit.

PART I: NATURE OF EMERGENCY

Use this field to describe in detail the nature of the emergency(s) that caused the material decrease in attendance. Provide a detailed explanation for any gap in between emergencies. Request should be accompanied by supporting documents, if applicable.

PART II: MATERIAL DECREASE CALCULATION

The information provided in Parts II and III will be used to determine if the loss of attendance meets the 90 percent threshold for attendance credit approval (except when the governor declares a state of emergency or in the case of a NSS site), and to calculate the estimated attendance credit amount. The fields below correspond to the columns on Form J-13A.

- A. School Name Enter the school name of each school requesting attendance credit on a separate line. Use the supplemental Excel form at https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/ pa/j13a.asp if more than 10 lines are needed for this request and select the "Supplemental Page(s) Attached" box on the top right corner.
- B. School Code Enter the seven-digit school code associated with the school listed in Column A. Use the California School Directory at https://www.cde.ca.gov/ schooldirectory/ to locate the school code
- C. "Normal" Attendance Provide the ADA for the school month of October or May of the same school year.

A school month is 20 days, or four weeks of five days each, including legal holidays but excluding weekend makeup classes (EC Section 37201). The school calendar begins on the first Monday of the week that includes July 1 or the Monday of the first week of school. As a result, school months can be split between September and October; October and November; April and May; May and June. Therefore, the CDE advises LEAs to use the school month that has the most school days in either October or May.

- D. Dates Used for Determining "Normal" Attendance - Enter the date range of the school month used to provide the ADA in Column C.
- E. Date of Emergency Enter the date of the emergency. If the emergency lasted for more than one day, use a separate line for each date.
- F. Actual Attendance Provide the actual attendance for the school site on the date of emergency listed in Column E.
- G. Qualifier: 90 Percent or Less (F/C) -Calculated field. If the nature of emergency is consistent with EC Section 46392, the school may qualify for an attendance

- adjustment when the Actual Attendance (Column F) divided by the "Normal" Attendance (Column C) yields a percentage of 90 percent or less. Exclude any emergency day that yields a percentage of more than 90 percent except when the governor declares a state of emergency or in a case of a NSS site.
- H. Net Increase of Apportionment Days (C-F) -Calculated field. The Actual Attendance (Column F) is subtracted from the "Normal" Attendance (Column C) to determine the Net Increase of Apportionment Days (Column H). When attendance on the date of emergency is greater than the "normal" attendance, this field will yield zero and should be removed from the material decrease calculation table.

If the request is approved, CDE's approval letter will include the total net increase of apportionment days, which may differ from the amount shown. The LEA will then divide this number by the days in the applicable P-1, P-2, or Annual reporting period to determine the ADA increase.

PART III: MATERIAL DECREASE CALCULATION FOR CONTINUATION HIGH SCHOOLS

Continuation education is an hourly program, therefore the attendance must be provided in hours for continuation schools. Three hours equals one apportionment day. The fields below correspond to the columns on Form J-13A.

- A. School Name Enter the school name of each continuation school requesting attendance credit on a separate line. Use the supplemental Excel file at https:// www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/pa/j13a.asp if more than five lines are needed for this request and select the "Supplemental Page(s) Attached" box on the top right corner.
- B. School Code Enter the seven-digit school code associated with the school listed in Column A. Use the California School Directory at https://www.cde.ca.gov/ schooldirectory/ to locate the school code.

C. "Normal" Attendance Hours – Provide the attendance hours for the continuation school on the same day of the week prior to, or the week following the emergency.

Example: If the emergency day is on a Tuesday, provide the attendance hours on the Tuesday of the week prior to or following the emergency.

- Date Used for Determining "Normal"
 Attendance Enter the date of the school day used to provide the attendance hours in Column C.
- E. Date of Emergency Enter the date of the emergency. If the emergency lasted for more than one day, use a separate line for each date.
- F. Actual Attendance Hours Provide the actual attendance hours for the continuation school on the date of emergency.
- G. Qualifier: 90 Percent or Less (F/C) Calculated field. If the nature of emergency is consistent with EC Section 46392, the school may qualify for an attendance adjustment when the Actual Attendance Hours (Column F) divided by the "Normal" Attendance Hours (Column C) yields a percentage of 90 percent or less. Exclude any emergency day that yields a percentage of more than 90 percent except when the governor declares a state of emergency or in a case of a NSS site.
- H. Net Increase of Hours (C-F) Calculated field. The Actual Attendance Hours (Column F) is subtracted from the "Normal" Attendance Hours (Column C) to determine the Net Increase of Hours (Column H). When attendance on the date of emergency is greater than the "normal" attendance, this field will yield zero and should be removed from the material decrease calculation table.

If the request is approved, the approval letter will include the total net increase of hours for all continuation schools on the form, which may differ from the amount shown. The LEA will then convert the hours to apportionment days and divide this number by the days in the applicable P-1,

P-2, or Annual reporting period to determine the ADA increase.

SECTION D: LOST OR DESTROYED ATTENDANCE RECORDS

If this request does not include any lost or destroyed attendance records, select the "Not Applicable" box on the top right corner and proceed to Section E.

Enter the dates of the records that were lost or destroyed.

Provide a detailed explanation on the emergency condition(s) and the extent of the lost or destroyed records.

State of emergency declared in San Bernardino County due to earthquakes near Trona

Jul 6, 2019

San Bernardino County Board of Supervisors Chairman Curt Hagman praised the efforts of first responders and other personnel in assisting the public following the huge earthquakes that affected Trona in the northwestern area of the county.

San Bernardino County signed a declaration of local emergency on July 6 to assist the San Bernardino County communities affected by two days of earthquakes.

County Board of Supervisors Chairman Curt Hagman praised the efforts of first responders and other personnel in assisting the public after the July 4 and 5 earthquake swarm, which included quakes measuring 6.4 and 7.1 in the areas of Trona in San Bernardino County and Ridgecrest in Kern County.

"We appreciate the outreach and support from the governor's office and White House." FEMA has also provided resources to affected areas," said Hagman.

Gov. Gavin Newsom declared a state of emergency for San Bernardino County following the 7.1 quake, which was the strongest quake to hit Southern California in 20 years.

Under the coordination of the County Office of Emergency Services, county officials and departments have been working around the clock to assess the situation in Trona and provide vital services to residents.

"Rapid response within 30 minutes from our departments, Sheriff, County Fire, Office of Emergency, Caltrans, ICEMA, Public Health, Building and Safety, County Purchasing and the County Administrative Office ensured that our residents received our full support following this earthquake," said Hagman. "We appreciate the efforts from everyone working on this incident and are doing all we can to assist those affected."

There were numerous injuries and damaged residences reported in Trona, but no fatalities. The county is working to determine the number of injured and damaged homes. County public works crews continue to assess and repair the road damage and per SCE, power has been restored.

Governor Gavin Newsom declared a state of emergency for San Bernardino County in the wake of a powerful magnitude 7.1 earthquake on Friday night, as urban search and rescue crews from around Southern California headed to Ridgecrest and surrounding areas to help assess the damages.

Los Angeles County Fire Department's Urban Search and Rescue Team 136 and Hazardous Materials Team 811 were sent Friday night. A heavy rescue apparatus and urban search and rescue support vehicle with six firefighters also headed to areas that felt the brunt of the quake, according to the Orange County Fire Authority.

San Bernardino first responders reported 911 calls coming in from northwest communities in the county, with homes shifted, foundation cracks and retaining walls down.

Numerous gas leaks were detected in the Trona and Argus areas, according to San Bernardino Fire authorities. Firefighters secured leaks where possible and evacuated residents from homes where the leaks could not be secured, the agency announced.

The Ridgecrest Police Department sent out a plea for Trona, saying the community is in "serious need of water." Police urged anyone able to bring a case, boxed or wrapped, to the Ridgecrest Police Department, so it could deliver water to Trona in a trailer.

Trona, a tiny unincorporated community on Death Valley's southwestern border, is 170 miles northeast of Los Angeles and an hour and a half north of the High Desert community of Adelanto.

A state of emergency helps to get resources in play more quickly and allows counties to recover some of their expenses when disasters strike.

The quake that hit Friday at 8:19 p.m. in rural Kern County shook Southern California, damaging roadways and causing an unknown number of injuries and structure fires. It was the second large quake to rattle the region in two days and was centered roughly 11 miles northeast of Ridgecrest, near where Thursday's 6.4 magnitude quake hit, the USGS said.

Several injuries and multiple structure fires were reported in the Ridgecrest area, state officials said late Friday night. But the extent of damage wasn't immediately clear, due in part to the fact that the quake hit just before nightfall, making it difficult to assess the severity of the problems, said Mark Ghilarducci, the director of the Governor's Office of Emergency Services.

"As the day breaks (Saturday morning), we'll be able to get a better assessment of the damage," Ghilarducci said.

Kern County fire officials also said late Friday that there were an unspecified number of injuries, along with fires in parts of the county, which opened an emergency shelter, according to The Associated Press.

California Gov. Gavin Newsom activated the state's Office of Emergency Services to its highest level, enabling state emergency crews to respond and coordinate with other first responders.

Dr. Lucy Jones, a seismologist with the United States Geological Survey, said the USGS has reclassified Thursday's earthquake as a foreshock since Friday night's earthquake was larger in magnitude.

"It will be ongoing," Jones said. "It is clearly a very energetic sequence, so there's no reason to think we can't have more (earthquakes)."

On Friday, scientists at Caltech said there were 1,400 aftershocks as of mid-afternoon, including a 5.4 magnitude quake that struck at about 4 a.m., scientists said.

"Prepare yourself for the next week to two weeks, this isn't going to stop in the near future," Ridgecrest police Chief Jed McLaughlin told residents late Friday night.

There were numerous reports of the quake being felt throughout Southern California, and beyond.

Statement from Trona Joint Unified School District Regarding the "Non-Energy Solid Leasable Mineral Royalty Rate Reduction" Regulation

Lately, several members of congress have decided that it is their duty to reduce potash royalties paid by soda ash processing plants in the United States. Not only do they want to reduce royalties paid, they want to give the Bureau of Land Management complete power in making that decision. Congress touts that the need to do so stems from competition by China in the global market. If potash royalties are reduced, [it will] "strengthen US. production and export of natural soda ash, and will ensure that our domestic soda ash industry remains competitive and robust." (News Review, "McCarthy Requests Reduction in Soda Ash Royalties", December 20, 2019) According to an earlier press release by Congressman Paul Cook, giving BLM more control in regulating royalties, will streamline the process.

While the above statements may sound good, there are some facts that have been left out. In a report by the Department of the Interior, after a reduction of royalties in 2006, it was shown that there were no new jobs created, no increased soda ash exports, and no increase in capital expenditures to enhance production (printed in "American Soda Ash Competitiveness Act Report", December 11, 2017). In addition, there is something that has been completely ignored and overlooked. Where do these potash royalties go? They are deposited in the U.S. Treasury, and then distributed between the Department of the Interior and the states in which potash is mined. When asked in an email how the royalties are distributed, Mitchell Leverette, of BLM replied, "Royalties for all mineral[s] that fall under the Mineral Leasing Act, which would include the Searles Lake minerals, are approximately 50% federal – 50% state." He then continued, "I meant to say royalty payment allocations are approximately 50-50 state and federal." This statement was informally confirmed by aides of Congressman Paul Cook during a meeting at our school.

So, what are we looking at here? Why should anyone, other than the industries that mine potash, care that royalties paid to the U.S. government are reduced? A portion of royalties that is distributed to California goes directly to Trona Joint Unified School District, which is in immediate proximity to Searles Valley Minerals, a producer and processor of soda ash and potash. A portion of those same royalties also goes to Kern Community College District. In the past fiscal year, as of July 31, 2019, Trona Joint U.S.D. received $4,159.274.40 from royalties, while Kern Community College District received $733,989.59 (data from California State Controller's Office). These monies go directly to educational benefits for these two public school districts.

Potash royalties have been the subject of debate and scrutiny for decades. In our immediate area, there is a direct dichotomy of interests. Trona Joint Unified School District would not exist without the existence and prosperity of whichever company is mining in Searles Valley at that time. At this time, it is Searles Valley Minerals. We want our company to be strong. However, we also want our children, the students at TJUSD, to have the best possible education. That is aided by the benefits of potash royalties.

Throughout the history of our community and our school district, potash royalties have been periodically decreased and increased at the discretion of the federal government. When they are reduced, our school district languishes, staff is reduced, and programs are dropped. However, the company continues to produce and export and profit. The Department of the Interior continues to flourish.

It was pointed out in the News Review article that Searles Valley Minerals experienced "millions of dollars in revenues lost from disrupted operations," due to earthquakes this past summer. Trona Joint Unified School District has already had to pay out over $2,000,000.00 above our budgeted operational costs for repairs and recovery from the July 4 and 5 earthquakes. We now have our elementary school and high school students at the elementary facilities due to damages to the high school site. Reimbursement by the state of California for these disaster costs is yet to be determined. Reducing royalties received by Searles Valley Minerals would only exacerbate an already dire situation.

A group of community members have been communicating with Congressman Paul Cook's office, which represents Trona, regarding this issue. Though we have never been able to meet directly with the congressman, we have tried to provide him with information which will assist congress in making a wise decision in this matter. Now, after the article in News Review, it seems we need to get our point across to Congressman Kevin McCarthy, who represents Ridgecrest and the Kern Community College District.

Our suggestion has been for the BLM to refuse receiving any of the potash royalties paid by the chemical companies in Wyoming and California. If their 50% allocation is eliminated, royalties paid by the industries would be reduced, while the states would not be affected. Five million dollars to the BLM is a "drop in the bucket", but to Trona Joint Unified School District and Kern Community College District, it is vital operating funds. Eliminating the amount of royalties allocated to the Bureau of Land Management is a simple solution, but one that seems to have escaped the minds of our government representatives and the BLM.

Representative McCarthy, we ask of you, as we have of Representative Paul Cook and others, to look beyond your limited scope. Make sure that your viewpoint and actions consider all parties affected by this issue. American industry is important, but so are local educational institutions.

McCarthy requests reduction in soda ash royalties

House Republican Leader Kevin McCarthy has partnered with 30 of his colleagues to request that the U.S. Department of the Interior support the proposed "Non-Energy Solid Leasable Mineral Royalty Rate Reduction" regulation.

In a letter to the DOI, House representatives requested reducing the royalty rate for soda ash, a primary raw material used in the manufacturing of glass, detergents and other household products.

"The purpose of this proposed rule is to address shortcomings with existing royalty rate reduction regulations." said the letter.

The proposal allows the Buruea of Land Management to make its own determination of need for an industry-wide royalty rate reduction.

"Currently, the domestic soda ash industry faces severe and unprecedented global competition from synthetic soda ash manufactured in China," the letter continued.

"Final approval of this rule will strengthen U.S. production and export of natural soda ash, and will ensure that our domestic soda ash industry remains competitive and robust."

Searles Valley Minerals in Trona extracts and ships some 1.75 million tons of chemicals per year — including soda ash.

Because the plant operates on government land. Searles Valley pays millions of dollars each year to federal and state governments, feeding into the revenue streams for local school districts

"As supporters of the domestic soda ash industry, we thank you for advancing this rulemaking," said the letter, concluding that a lowered rate will level the playing field in domestic and global markets, allowing U.S. industry to expand and add jobs throughout the supply chain.

"This will be a great advantage to Searles Valley Minerals," said Arzell Hale, spokesperson for the Trona plant.

"We are facing serious competition from Turkey and China with the manufacturing of soda ash."

Hale also noted that in light of the recent earthquakes and the millions of dollars in revenues lost from disrupted operations, "Our period of recovery will be very long."

Rep. Cook Applauds BLM Proposed Rule to Streamline Royalty Rate Reduction Process for Non-Energy Solid Minerals Mined on Public Lands

Aug 26, 2019 | Press Release

WASHINGTON – Rep. Paul Cook (R- Apple Valley) applauded the Bureau of Land Management's (BLM) announcement today of a proposed rule to provide much needed regulatory relief and efficiencies for non-energy solid leasable minerals, including soda ash. The proposed rule is expected to save up to $5 million in regulatory costs over the next decade.

Specifically, the rule will streamline the process for the BLM to administratively reduce royalties collected on soda ash. A rate reduction will keep US producers competitive and allow U.S. soda ash producers to expand in foreign markets, securing good-paying American mining jobs.

Rep. Cook has been a strong advocate for reducing royalties collected on soda ash by the federal government and has previously introduced legislation to do so. Soda ash is used to manufacture glass and produce chemicals, detergents, paper, and other products. Soda ash also has a critical national security role as a key component in cockpit windshields manufactured by the aerospace industry.

Aside from the economic benefit, promoting American soda ash is good for the environment. While American soda ash is found naturally, Chinese soda ash is produced synthetically. Chinese synthetic

DISSENTING VIEWS

This bill is an entirely unnecessary giveaway to a healthy industry that will cost American taxpayers tens of millions, if not hundreds of millions of dollars, while doing nothing to achieve the positive benefits that the supporters of this legislation claim it will

Similar royalty relief for the soda ash industry was enacted in 2006, and after five years of the lower royalty, the Department of the Interior concluded that the royalty rate reduction, "does not appear to have contributed in a significant way to the creation of new jobs within the industry, to increased exports, or to a notable increase in capital expenditures to enhance production." (Report appended to these views.)

Furthermore, in the two years after that royalty relief expired, under every relevant metric, the soda ash industry performed better than it did with that relief in place. During the royalty relief period production dropped, U.S. market share dropped, employment went down, and the average rate of export growth was 3.4 percent. In the two years after royalty relief expired, production went up, U.S. market share went up, employment increased, and the average rate of export growth was 8.8 percent. In Fiscal Years 2014 and 2015 the soda ash industry again received a royalty rate cut, yet employment, production, and exports have stayed flat from 2013 through 2016.

The Majority has claimed that the royalty relief did not cost taxpayers much because royalty collections from 2007-2011 were only $2 million below the collections from 2002-2006. However, the price of soda ash more than doubled between 2004 and 2009, which is the only reason that total collections were able to keep pace. Soda ash prices are currently at their highest levels in decades, which makes it even less necessary to provide royalty relief to this industry, and makes the potential royalty revenue loss even great-

The official CBO score of $50 million in automatically lost revenues to the federal government is only half of the issue. Since royalties are split with states, California and Wyoming also stand to lose $50 million, at least, under this bill. Instead of $100 million that could be going to fund schools, build roads, and provide medical care, that money will go straight into the pockets of mining company CEOs.

None of the reasons the Majority provides for supporting this bill are substantiated by the facts. Vague arguments about the need to remain competitive and increase employment could be made for every extractive resource industry in the nation, yet lowering royalty rates for no reason simply cheats the American people of their fair share of revenues from the development of public resources on public land. The situation is even worse for the States: the Interior

Mr. Leverette.

I have written to you previously with questions about Trona/potash royalties, but haven't had the pleasure to hear from you as of this message.

I am a governing board member from Trona Joint Unified School District in Trona, CA. Our school district receives an allowance of Trona/potash royalties since our town is in direct proximity to Searles Valley Minerals.

I have been given the task of researching the distribution policy for those royalties. This is only for informational purposes for our school district, being brought on by the attempted legislation of Rep. Paul Cook to reduce the royalties paid by such companies as Searles Valley Minerals.

A question was raised by our staff, asking how the royalties are distributed. I thought you would be the best person to contact since you listed as the "Acting Assistant Director-Energy, Minerals and Realty Management" on the BLM website. Any assistance would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you very much for your time.

Ms. Heseman,

Royalties for all mineral that fall under the Mineral Leasing Act, which would include the Searles Lake minerals, are approximately 50% Federal - 50% State.
